

2013 SHOOFLY PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

90 pts “Bright red. Intensely perfumed red berry and blood orange aromas, along with suggestions of five-spice powder and white pepper. Racy and precise on the palate, showing sweet raspberry and cherry flavors and bracing minerality. Finishes juicy, focused and long, with building floral character and silky tannins.”

Josh Reynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2014